

Latin America 'Through The Lens' Social Media competition

Kia ora,

Hope you and your bubble are keeping safe and healthy!

Taking advantage of our time during the Level 4 lockdown across the country, we now have the chance to reflect on and share memories of international adventures. The LANZBC Young Professionals Network wants to bring New Zealanders closer to the Latin American continent. The social media competition 'Latin America Through the Lens' will open tomorrow (26th August) at 12:00 PM NZT.

The voting will take place on Facebook, 1 like = 1 vote, voting closes on the 16th of September. We will continue to take submissions for the social media competition during the voting period. Applicants can submit a maximum of 5 photos per applicant. All photos will need to be taken by the applicants themselves.

To make a submission please email your photographs with the email header 'Latin America Through the Lens – [first name] [last name]'. (If your images cannot be emailed, please share the higher res images via Dropbox in the body of the email.)

Email: lanzbc.ypn@gmail.com

In an attached Word document to your email, include

- Your contact details, name, and age.
- Include where the photo/s were taken.
- Any stories associated with any photographs that you would like to share (up to 150 words per photograph);
- Include your name and the photograph title in both the attached document and on the photographs submitted.

Once you have submitted your entry, we will add your photos to our Competition album on Facebook and send you the link to share with your peers.
